1	Welcome and Apologies Rachel Brooks welcomed everyone to the meeting. Apologies were received from Iga Webb (Museum), Ann Kinahan (Market Makers) and Mary Utton (volunteer).
2	HOD Nationally The blog for the HOD team featuring Rachel Br and Brian had been sent off.
3	Possible Events and Activities A Ideas on the Creativity Unwrapped theme Creative Jam – Although the grant application was unsuccessful, the Liskerrett Centre are still planning a creative jam event on the second weekend. The artists to work with schools have been selected and matched with the schools. Artwork from this will be used for the printed panels in bus shelters and elsewhere. Calum's photography walk will also feed into this and art groups at the Liskerrett Centre are also producing material. Brian will send through the U3A contact details as they had lots of interests including an art group on Thursday mornings. Frame the Town – The frames for both sides of the Parade and both ends of Fore Street are ready to use. Use #LiskeardUnlocked when sharing. Family Trail – Rachel Be has spoken to Vicky at the TIC. She will look again to see if a trail can be done. Open Studios – Ann has worked on the Trail with Woodhill Studios, DAK, the Museum and Liskerrett Centre. It's coming along well. The Pinwell Sisters – there will be no event at The Bookshop. Liskeard Glass (Merlin Glass) – Liskeard Glass will be part of the display at The Museum. B Open Properties	BO RBe
