

The Mayor's recent activities

The Mayor and consort had an evening with the Liskeard Scouts on 18th October in the Mayors Parlour. She talked about the duties involved in being Mayor and the Scouts tried on the Mayor's regalia. Terry Whitty talked about the muffineer LT Lapenortiere of HMS Pickle and the town's silverware.

The visit with the Mayor will go towards one of the Scout challenge badges.

On Thursday last week, 25th, the Mayor invited the Liskeard Traders Association and Liskeard in Bloom and their helpers to the Mayor's Parlour to receive certificates of appreciation for everyone's hard work in making the town bright and welcoming. Their many Awards and accolades being well deserved.

The Mayor and consort attended the fashion show on Saturday afternoon at the Liskerrett Centre which was raising funds for the Mayor's Charity and the Liskerrett Centre .

It was well supported and included a delicious cream tea from the Hub Café. The clothes were donated to the Liskerrett Thrift Shop and the raffle raised funds for the Mayor's Charity.
