

Civic Service and Muffineer Talks

The Mayor, the Town Clerk and Members of Liskeard Town Council attended the first Civic Service of the year which was held in Liskeard Methodist Church on Sunday February 3rd.

Amongst the congregation were visiting Mayor's from Torpoint Cllr Lambert Keise and Consort Maureen, Mayor of Launceston Cllr Margaret Young and Consort Nicola, Mayor of Looe Cllr Armand Toms, Mayor of Saltash Cllr John Brady, Deputy Mayor of Bodmin Cllr Jeremy Cooper and Consort.

Liskeard Silver Band played some of the hymns, also in the congregation was a large contingent from the Liskeard Scout Group. The Mayor and Deputy Mayor read a lesson. The Mayor and Rev Mark Pengelly thanked everyone for attending the Civic Service and their continued support for the Town.
