

Launceston's Evening of Mayors

The Mayor Christina Whitty and consort attended the Mayors fund raising evening in support of the St Petroc's Society. An evening of mayors was held at Launceston Town Hall on Friday 15th of March with the kind permission of the Mayor of Launceston Margaret Young. Organised by Jackie Davies and compared by former Mayor of Wadebridge Tony Rush.

This was the fifth year that Tony has compared the Mayors concert. There were several former Mayors, deputy Mayors and Councillors who entertained the large audience. During the interval everyone enjoyed a traditional Cornish pasty. Lots of money was raised on the night for the work towards helping to end street homelessness in Cornwall.

The Mayor Christina Whitty recited two poems which was well received.

The night ended with a rousing rendition of Trelawny.

Picture below: the whole of the Launceston council sang a song

LET'S END STREET HOMELESSNESS IN CORNWALL

IT'S TIME TO ACT. MAKE A DONATION, BE A FUNDRAISER, BECOME A VOLUNTEER, SUPPORT US.

St Petros helps hundreds of people who find themselves homeless each year, for whom there is no statutory provision. In 2017 our campaign helped reduce the number of rough sleepers in Cornwall from 99 to 68, bucking the national trend.

With your support we can end street homelessness in Cornwall. To find out how you can help, visit our website.

stpetrocs.org.uk

St Petros

St Petros's Society is a registered society with charitable status number 25231R

Design by Tivo