

Kresen Kernow Opening Preview

Liskeard Mayor, Rachel Brooks, was delighted to attend the preview evening for Kresen Kernow on Tuesday evening, 3rd September 2019.

Kresen Kernow is Cornwall's brand new, state-of-the-art archive centre. Constructed in the Brewhouse of the former Redruth Brewery this beautiful building is a new public space for Cornwall. It contains 1.5 million records covering 850 years of history, with research rooms and exhibition spaces. There will be an open day on Saturday 7 September, and it opens to researchers from 11 September.

