

On Saturday 29th July The Mayor, Christina Whitty, and her consort Terry Whitty attended a Musical evening at Liskeard Methodist Church conducted by Neil Shepherd. Neil played the Organ and Ruth Best his accompanist played the Piano.

The Liskeard and Bodmin Choir was only formed earlier this year and sang 11 songs which were well received by the audience. The choir meet in the Public Hall on Fridays between 1.15 pm- 2.45 pm and would welcome new members who share an interest in singing.

Neil was born in the North of England and moved to Cornwall in 2008. He teaches music and conducts 10 choirs and he has played the Organ at many venues, including Paris.

Ruth also teaches music, plays the piano, organ and violin and in 2017 Ruth became the accompanist to Cornwall Community Choir and other choirs.

The money raised from this concert will go to RNLI

If anyone is interested in learning more about the choir they could contact Neil by emailing him at laudatemusic@gmail.co.uk or by visiting  [www.cornwallsing.com ] (<http://www.cornwallsing.com> )

He would be very pleased to hear from you.

