

The last meeting of the Museum Management Group was held on 14th June 2019. Minutes will become available once they have been agreed.

Points to report:

- A new volunteer member, Keith Charman, has been elected to the group after the departure of Mary-Ann Parsons.
- The group has invited Lily Crocker (Deputy Member of the Youth Parliament) to attend meetings.
- Visitor Numbers are up on the past 2 years. See attached
- Social Media following continues to increase however, the website has less hits.
- Volunteer numbers have fluctuated.
- The group is looking for ways to fund and retain our student volunteer for projects through the summer.
- Policies and documents are being finalised for the Accreditation Renewal. These will be brought to C&E for ratification over the next couple of meetings.
- The volunteer team are planning to stage an exhibition about the 50's & 60's next year and have started to research and source items for display. We will be making appeals to the public for loan and donation objects.
- The museum is providing support for taking oral history stories at the Liskeard Unlocked event. A training workshop is planned for Monday 15th July at the Public Hall. Anyone interested in volunteering to take interviews or support the interviewer are welcome to attend. Please contact Karen Partington – Museum Coordinator.
