222 / 23 EVENTS

a) Liskeard Unlocked (8 – 17 September 2023) - to receive a verbal update

The previous weekend had gone very well. There had been lots of interest in the new workshed, and the library tours were fully subscribed.

Mandy was thanked for her tireless work on the event, and Vicky for all the social media posts. The Chair and committee thanked Councillor Brooks for coordinating the group.

b) Remembrance Day Parade (12 November 2023) – to note the details

Full details would be circulated nearer the time to include related events such as the Field or Remembrance

c) Christmas Events

(i) to receive the notes from the planning meeting on 9 August and a verbal update;

The first meeting was very positive with a wide range of organisations attending, the next one will be on 26 September at 11am to which all are welcome. This year there would be a return to events similar to the pre pandemic period, with two new additions: a special programme from RIO at the library as part of their launch; and entertainment in the cattle market events area.

(ii) to consider funding for Christmas activities including the road closure

Considerable work had gone into finding somebody suitable to operate the road closure required. The total cost would be approx. £2,200. An application was also being submitted to Feast for a maximum grant of £2,500 to assist with the activities and entertainment, which would need match funding of £1,000. The deadline was 17 September 2023.

It was identified that £297.29 held in an ear-marked reserve for Nadelik Lyskerrys could be used for evening entertainment.

It was reported that there was still some uncertainty over the funds held by the Lights Up group.

Councillor Cassidy proposed, Councillor Braithwaite seconded, and the Committee RESOLVED to proceed with the road closure and match funding and request an additional £1,000 from Council towards the additional costs of Christmas activities.

d) Ukrainian event – to consider another event for Ukrainian people in the area

An event similar to the Independence Day of Ukraine held in Truro last month was proposed, where families bring their own food to share. The Town Council would provide a venue and tea/coffee, etc.

Councillor Taylor proposed, Councillor Braithwaite seconded, and the Committee RESOLVED to proceed with an event. The Cornwall Council Homes for Ukraine team would be contacted to ask if they could attend, and what their availability would be. Ideally this would be a Saturday or Sunday in early December after the new flag poles had been erected.

e) Update on fair return to Liskeard

Some discussion has taken place between David Rowlands and Cornwall Council, supported by Councillors Craker and Pascoe to find a suitable date, possibly in October.
