

Crying the Neck, Old Cornwall Society 1st September, 2017 at Bolitho Farm

On Friday 1st September the Mayor, Christina Whitty, and Consort, Terry, joined members of the Old Cornwall Society for their "Crying the Neck" at Bolitho Farm, courtesy of James Moon.

The prayers and readings were read in Cornish by Mike Smith and in English by Rev Mark Pengelly, Rev Steve Morgan and Dr Kathy Lang. The Crying the Neck was read in Cornish by Mark and English by Christina.

It was a beautiful sunny evening and all who attended enjoyed the ceremony. A Wheat Sheaf made by Paul Pascoe was on display for everyone to view.

Old Cornwall Society Meetings are held in the Public Hall each second Friday in the month (September to May) at 2pm.

Should any one wish to join the Society, contact Mr Duncan Matthews, Trelowia, 27 Trecarne View, St Cleer, Liskeard, PL14 5BS. Tel: 01579-208912
