

Domestic Abuse Advice Pilot Scheme

The Domestic Abuse Pilot Scheme will run until 31 October 2020.

The aim of the scheme is to provide information and advice specifically to those who have been affected by, or are experiencing any form of domestic abuse, either now or in the past.

Some of our main enquiry areas are welfare benefits, debt, housing and employment.

However, we can help with any issue, and it does not have to be related to domestic abuse.

Individuals can self-refer online via this link:

<https://www.citizensadvicecornwall.org.uk/2020/07/06/client-referral-form-da-project/>

or by using our Text Service:

Text the word "ADVICE DA" to 78866 (note space between ADVICE and DA).

Potential Clients who contact Citizens Advice Cornwall, should include information about the best day/time to contact them back, so that we can do so safely.

Referrals can be made by authorised third party organisations, provided that they have the relevant consent and permissions in place to enable Citizens Advice to contact the client safely.

If you need to register as a Third Party Referral Organisation, please email admin@citizensadvicecornwall.org.uk
