Emily Hobhouse Craftivism Project – Call for lead artist

Are you an artist or group of artists who enjoy working with community groups to create large-scale art?

Interested in craftivism and how we can explore the contemporary relevance of heritage issues?

Liskeard Town Council wishes to commission an artist (or team of artists) to work collaboratively with community groups in the area to develop and implement a two-dimensional artwork inspired by the life and achievements of Emily Hobhouse, to be sited on an exterior wall along Westbourne alleyway in Liskeard, Cornwall.

Expressions of interest required by 12 noon on Friday 11th October 2019
