

Liskeard Show 2017

The Mayor Christina Whitty and her consort Terry Whitty in discussion with the Town Clerk Steve Vinson, at the Liskeard Agricultural Show. The busy Town Council stand featured a "Meet your new Councillors" display, with many of the new Councillors helping to man the stand.

There was an imaginative word match puzzle of Cornish and English words as part of the promotion of the Cornish Christmas bid, which Liskeard secured against stiff competition.

The Liskeard in Bloom project was also promoted. This is a development of the Liskeard Traders Association Fore Street hanging baskets idea, combined with the Town Council town centre planters. It is being taken forward by the Liskeard Town Forum.
