MON 2nd - FRI 13th SEPTEMBER: Mon-Fri 9.30am-3.30pm; Sat 9.30am-12.20pm

Exhibition of Date Stones on Buildings around Liskeard

- Stuart House (PL14 6AB). Stuart House will also host exhibitions from some of the other participating buildings from 16th - 20th September.

FRIDAY 13th SEPTEMBER:

2.30pm - "The Dragon Lady" - illustrated talk by Chris Knight about Hester Parnall, who ran the St Austell Brewery with an iron fist! Organised by the Old Cornwall Society, in the Emily Hobhouse Room at the Public Hall (PL14 6BW).

7pm - Evening Heritage Walk with Brian Oldham - from the Fountain on The Parade (PL14 6AF) around the town centre, focussing on 19th century trades and occupations.

SATURDAY 14th SEPTEMBER:

11am and 2pm - The Children's Strike - a promenade performance about the children's miners' strike of 1872, by Wham Bam Drama Club. Start at the Methodist Church (PL14 4BL), with scenes at locations around the town, finishing at the Museum (PL14 3JE).

Free tickets from Liskeard Tourist Information Centre. Limited spaces, so booking advised.

SUNDAY 15th SEPTEMBER:

2pm - The Stonework of St Martin's Church - a geology-focussed walk with Callum Beeson inside and outside the Church looking at the type and source of the stone (PL14 3AQ).

SATURDAY 21st SEPTEMBER: (NB - This is the following weekend!)

9.40am prompt! - Guided Walk from the Train in the Looe Valley - meet at Liskeard Station (PL14 4DX) Ticket Office for group savings on tickets and travel down the Looe Valley Line, walking back up to 3½ miles to a request stop to flag the train down for the return to Liskeard. (For a free walk, meet the train at Sandplace (PL13 1PJ) at 10.15am or Causeland (PL14 4RW) at 11.10am.)

POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

Liskeard Unlocked is part of the nationwide Heritage Open Days, which this year celebrates its 25th anniversary with a focus on the theme of 'People Power'. Throughout the events and activities taking place here in Liskeard, you'll see that theme reflected around the town.

Friday 13th to Sunday 15th - and Saturday 21st September

This September LISKEARD UNLOCKED will again share the town's stories - with walks, talks, exhibitions and a promenade play - and the chance to see behind doors which are usually closed.

For more details ask at the Liskeard Tourist Information Centre or look online at www.visitliskeard.co.uk
