St AUSTELL PARISH CHURCH PIPE ORGAN

Dear Sirs,

The PCC of St Austell Parish Church, wish to dispose of their Pipe Organ, (make unknown), in favour of an Electronic Key Board.

The instrument is currently played by my Cousin 'Hilary Keam' formerly of Liskeard.

If there would be no monetary exchange, might it be an idea to secure this instrument for the Liskeard Public Hall, having it installed on the balcony.

Such a musical piece would greatly enhance the character of the Public Hall and as with the UK's larger city's Concert Halls provide a wonderful asset to concerts held at Liskeard.

There should be grants available for its dismantling, re-assembly and restoration from the Pipe Organist Preservation Group, the Federation of Old Cornwall Societies and maybe assistance from Mr Corrin, St Keyne Station Organ Museum.
