Verbal report given

278 / 22                      AGENT PRESENTATION

PA22/05578 - Aaron Puffett advised the development would consist of 23 dwellings including 6 affordable, with a mix of home types including bungalows, public open space and parking. It may be possible to include play equipment on the open space, although there are other playparks within the larger development. Dwellings would be built on the higher ground, which slopes away to the open space. Hedges and trees would prevent overlooking of the neighbouring dwellings, and none of the properties included balconies. The hammerhead junction was for turning and not to facilitate future access.

It was noted that the existing temporary crossing of Tregay Lane relating to previous phases of the development had now been in place for 5 years, and an additional temporary access would not be welcome. Eve Somerville confirmed that all work required for the s38 agreement relating to the new estate roads within the previous phases had been submitted to Cornwall Council. She would chase this again with their own highways engineers and provide time scales to complete the works.

PA22/08596 – Clare Whitehead advised that the development could be achieved under permitted development, however the proposed external changes which required permission would result in a better quality of internal living accommodation. The development was in a sustainable location, and no parking was provided. The retail space had last been occupied in 2021 as a used clothing shop and had not been marketed. The property was in the same ownership as the neighbouring vacant band hall, and bin storage would be provided in the alley.
