

A Town Crier's Competition was held in Liskeard last Saturday – The Mayor of Liskeard Councillor Jane Pascoe judged the Town Crier competition held in Fore Street, Liskeard. This was part of the St Matthews Day Fair celebrations. Ten entrants came from Cornwall Callington, Launceston, Exmouth, Dartmouth, Calne, Frome, Ilfracombe, Royal Wotton Bassett and the winner from Lichfield... Funniest extract from the cries came from the Ilfracombe Town Crier who encouraged everyone to visit Ilfracombe and invited them to take a seagull away with them when they finished their visit.
